A ROTAL GOVERNMENT.—It is undershedly the design of the accessionists to establish a government upon a different model from our present Republic—more regal in its forms and stronger in its powers. In the South Carolina Assembly the memoers sit with their hats on. The clerks, dreaved in a gown, call the roil. The messenger, in front of the Speaker's room, sinkes his staff on the floer, rying out, "Micke way for the Speaker," the door-keeper repeals it loudy with three flexity raps of his staff, and then the Speaker himself, elected in a rich blue mazarion robe, marches up the aids to his seat.

BE CAREFUL OF THE LITTLE ONES .-Just now there are a great many children down with the sore throat—and a sore throat of the most violent and malignant character. The health of our adult population was never better, but there is every reason for earefulness with the little ones at this season.

The Chicago Tribune says, on that subject:

"In some families more than one cherishighed idol of affection has been taken; in one stricken household within our knowledge, stricken household within our knowledge, the sweet tones of three little prattlers have been hushed; how dread the silence succeeding such a stroke every parent with a pitying thrill can realize, cleaping yet living treasures the closer. To the coanal need of watchfulness in the care of the little ones of a household, at this season is now added the positive duty of strictest vigilance, and an intelligent, yet not too timorous observance of the earliest symptoms of disease of the type indicated, and prompt reference of the case to a skillful physician. It is all that can be done, yet many a parent mourns that this small duty was neglected when moments were precious, and the saorlice by delay, priceless."

Y. World, Fig. 19.

This is a just criticism from an impartial source. The World is not a partisan paper; but independent in all things. It is right in pronouncing such "Union Meetings" as those referred to, utter failures; and only calculated to do mischief. The Republican Party cannot and will not be driven from its ground by denunciations and threats. It is not by such "approaches" that "compronise" of the respective to the verge of consistency, or of fidelity, in going to the verge of consistency, or of fidelity in not by such "approaches" that "compronise" of the test party and great points. mise," or "co-operation" can be obtained from the North. They are mis-judging, if not false friends both to the South and sustained by the reflection that we have done North, who conduct these so-called "Union" meetings in a spirit which tends to render Union impossible.

CRIRIS.-The article which we copy this morning, from the Albany Evening Journal. has been the subject of several telegraphic despatches and elicits much comment from the press. It is from the vigorous pen of Thurnew Werd, one of the ablest editors and soundest politicians in the country.—
However men may differ in opinion as to the right, or policy of the "compromise?" which the Journal proposes, sew can find fault with the language of the article, and none can fail to spirit which pervades every line of it. We commend it to the thoughtful consideration of all our readers.

From the Albany Exening Journal With two or three exceptions, the sugges-tions of the Evening Journal, having an ad-justment of the controversy which threatens to divide the Union, for their object, have elicited from the republican press, in this and other states, responses in the spirit of these head lines. That our views encounter all that can be done, in the way of justice, equality, conciliation and forbearance, to avert a conflict, but if all efforts in that direction, prove fruitless, it is better to rebuke treason enforce the laws, and preserve the Union, cost what it may, than suffer its dis-bor away before we went considerations will have their due weight with the Southern People and I-ad them to see what perilous consequences are involved in the rash step of secession.

A Sonad Opholon.

Hon. John A. Canperli, Judge of the U.S. District Court for the District of Allabama, has written a letter, giving his view in regard to the present condition of public affairs. He enters clatorately into the character of the people of the North and the South, and defines the causes of the conflict between them. The controversy on the subject of slavery is minutely traced from the adoption of the Federal Constitution to the election of Mr. Lincoln and processions:

Its That the election of Mr. Lincoln decane afford and the state of the people of the South, he arrives at the following conclusions:

Its That the election of Mr. Lincoln decane afford and the construction of the Unice.

A Sonad Opholon.

If the properties of the people of the North and the passage should be followed by a repeal of personal fiberty bears and the state governments of the people of the North and the solution of the Federal Constitution to the election of Mr. Lincoln, and appreciating the present condition of the South, he arrives at the following conclusions:

Its That the election of Mr. Lincoln decane afford and the construction of the Unice.

Its That the election of Mr. Lincoln decane afford and the constitution of the Unice.

Its That the election of Mr. Lincoln decane afford and the construction of the Unice.

Its That the election of Mr. Lincoln decane afford and provided and particises and patricises of those who is a constitution of the Unice.

Its That the election of Mr. Lincoln decane afford the provided and particises and patricises of these who is a constitution to the election of Mr. Lincoln decane afford the provided and the further of the period to the provided and the provided are appealed present and the provided and the provided are following conclusions:

1st. That the election of Mr. Lincoln does not afford subducted from 1st. That the great subject of disturbance, that of sharery is the Territories, rests upon a satisfactory foundation, and that we have nothing to ask, except sharet for the disturbance of the intelligence and patriotism of those who as the state of the state of the subject of the rendition of figitive shares can be adjusted to the satisfaction of the lighted property holder, and without dishonor to ourselves.

rights we have, or those that have been defeated or impaired, and in whatever concerns the subjects of contensity and insult we complain of, there may be a subjects name for name for increased vigilance, for preparation, for atliance among the Southern States, for the South cannot be trusted. Perhaps if would be so again, but not in our generation, for atliance among the Southern States, for the Kenand of new gunranteet, but not for dismina, until there is a refusal for redress. In my opinion, separate State action will result in the discredit and defeat of every measure for reparation or security.

If the South was established. To this we shall be told that the compact was violated, and that the southeast will be tought of the South cannot be trusted. Perhaps if would be so again, but not in our generation, or the next, nor, indeed, until the lessons of the last six years have been forgotten.

The prevalent sentiment, however, rejects to hope that every "grievance" of which she can justly complain might be promptly and satisfactorily redressed, and Peace and Harmony restored to our distracted Union.

The Temper of the Southern Fress. The Temper of the Senthern Fress.

The more violent of the Southern Press the government, they have passed the bouncard their incendiary appeals to the dary of negotiation, let us remember that they are blinded by passion, and endeavor they are blinded by passion, and endeavor blameless. If there are beams in our neighbords of the forts, the states all theorems of all means of providing a condict, the States will, by negolation among themselves, adjust all difficulties, and final union may result from this negolation but to deliver over to Lincch the defences of the States is to offer to him opportunities of agracesian, and to aid in producing civil war. It's the object of conducting to deprive those who have produced the present state of addies of all means to further layoby the country in civil war. The inconsurey Virginia should civiliar. All disabilitated according to the birthplace and predictions to offerers, that the Federal Government emasculated and shorn of power, may be unable to involve the country in civil war.

The wickedness and folly of such counsels The wickedness and folly of such counsels are too apparent to call for remark. Surely while such a spirit animates the Southern press, there can be little hope of comprosition. Societies have been formed, presses stabilished, tracts distributed, and emissant of the country of

She lifted the glittering goblet, and letting it suddenly fall to the sloor, it was dashed in a thousand pieces. Manyias tearful eye watched her movement, and instantaneously every wine cup was transferred to the marble table on which it had been prepared.—Then, as she looked at the fragments of Then, as she looked at the fragments of crystal, she turned to the company saying, "Let no friend hersafter who loves me, tempt me to peril my soul for wine. Not firmer are the everlasting hills than my re-solve, God helping me, never to touch or taste, that terrible poison. And he to whom I have given my hand-who watched over my brother's dying form in that last solemn hour, and buried the dear wanderer there by the river in that land of gold, will, I trust, sustain me in that resolve. Was her answer. The judge left the room, and when an hour after he returned, and with a more subdued manner took part in the entertainment of the bridal guests, no one could fail to see that he, too, had determined to banish the enterty home.

Those who were present at that wedding can never forget the impression so solemly made. Many from that hour foreswore the social glass.

social glass. DEATH OF CHEVALIER BURSEN. - The steamer New York, which arrived here this morning, brings us intelligence of the death, at Bonn, of Chevalier Bunsen, whose illness at Bonn, of Chwalier Bunsen, whose illness we recorded but a few weeks since.

Christian Karl Josias Bunsen was born in August, 1791, at Corbach, in the German principality of Waldeck. He was aducated principally at Gottingen, where he commenced his career in 1811 as a teacher in a gymnasinm. When twenty-two years old he won an academical prize for a disquisition on the Athenian Laws of Descent. Subsequently Bunsen travelled in Holland and Deumark, and in 1815 went to Berlin, where he became Intimate with Nicobian. In 1816 he vicited Paris, and soon after went to Rome, where he married the daughter of an English olergraman, and became private secretary to Reference of the Relieve Statement Constitution.

where he married the daughter of an English clergyman, and became private secretary to Niebuhr, who was then Russian minister to the Papal Court.

In 1827, on the resignation of the latter, he succeeded to his diplomatic position.—This post he resigned in 1837, and the year after became Prussian Minister to the Swiss Confederation. In 1841 he was promoted to the Ambassadorship to England, dlling this high official position till 1858. During this period he took an active part in the political discussions of the day, and sided strongly with the French and English during the late war with Russia. These sentiments rendered him unpopular with his government, and brought about his diplomatic overthrow.

REPORTED BY THE N. Y. ASSOCIATED PRESS FOR THE DAILY SENTINEL.

Startling Rumor from Washington

Of Fort Moultrie! ARMS ALREADY DELIVERED UP!

The President Orders the Surrender

Washington, Dec. 20-3 P. M.

The Times' Washington correspondent says that orders have been issued to Major Anderson to surrender Fort Moultrie, if attacked. tacked.

I am reliably informed that Major Ander son telegraphed here that he had surrendered a large number of arms which had been removed from the arsenal to Fort Moultie, to the authorities of Charleston, on de mand being made for them. This was done in obedience, as he says, to the spirit of orders received from Washington.

An official dispatch, giving information of the passage of the ordinance of secession, was received here this afternoon by President Buchanan.

Buchanan.

A number of Southern men were with him at the time, and I learn that he exhibited much agitation on hearing the news.

The passage of the ordinance produced interpretationary in Congress to-day when

The passage of the ordinance produced intense exoitement in Congress to-day when the despatch came, and it was announced that South Carolina had passed the ordinance of scoassion, and it was privately reported that the South Carolina members remaining had prepared a farewell address to be delivered to-morrow morning, for the purpose of going out in a body, and creating an impression. The Rapublicans immediately renewed the proposition to adjourn, and carried it, and the South Carolina members must wait till Monday to make their demonstrations.

Special Dispatch to the New York Herald.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Dec. 19.—Thurlow Weed, Judge Slosson and J. H. Van Allen, of New York, arrived here from the East in the early morning train. Weed was closeled with Lincoln from 9 till 3 o'clock. He brought his compromise along, which was the subject of intense discussion. It is said that medifications were insisted upon by the the subject of intense discussion. It is said that modifications were insisted upon by the President elect, relative to the recognition of the right of slavery in the territories, and that the idea of a restoration of Geographical lines, was repudiated. West returns this evening. It is reported that he will take the modified programme to Washington where it will be submitted to the Republican members of Congress. He saw no one but where it will be submitted to the Republican members of Congress. He saw no one but Lincoln and a few of the latter's friends—Moses Grinnell is mentioned as Secretary of the Treasury, and Mr. Draper as Collador. Seward's declination of a seat in the Cabinet is said to have been intimated. The news from Charleston has produced great sensation in political circles. Mr. Lincoln, however, read it calmly.

MONEY MATTERS AV ST. LOUIS. The Democrat of Wednesday has the following raport of money matters at St. Louis:

A better feeling is still hoted in money matters here Dispatches of to-day's date from New Orienns mention a continued improvement there. The news from Europe fits marning, showing that large reachts of gold may be loosed for from that quarter, also tends to improve the prospects. The efferings at our banks and other moneyed institutions are not as large as they can de, and accommodations in the way of discount are not as difficult to obtain as benefored. One of this banks at best discounted up to $50,000 yeater day and to-day. Yet of course there is somewhat of a carrity of money hers.

of the names at these distributions of the names at the day. Net of course there is somewhat of a carrity of money here. The calls for sight exchange were not so large as hereactore; not because a supply has been furnished, for there has been to meen so of creating it, except by shipping cain; but a determination seems to be munifest not to submit longer to such rathe as prevail now. Ortificates of deposit at Bank have been sent on by some, and creditors who can, with out with patience and an improvement is had in the exchange marked. The selling rath of sight on the East-remains at 1 2 coat premium over Miscouri paper, the sireet rate being 9%. For gold, 2 to My premium is the rate.

In so our Miscouri paper, excepting that of the Exchange Bark, 182%,69% discount below gold, in buying xishings. Limbis and Wisconsin currency is longity the State Savings and other dealers at 1 discount below fill-scurit, to-day. Onto, Kentucky, Indiana and Louisiana currency at 3 do cont premium above Missouri.
